Inflation Has Created Fund Needs Among UF Agencies

(Fifth of a series by Michael Dashwood, Chairman, Tri-Cities Area United Fund Campaign.)

For the last three campaigns, the amounts collected by the Tri-Cities Area United Fund have been static—about $370,000.

In that time, the Cost-of-Living Index has risen 16½%, while average gross hourly earnings in manufacturing have risen 18½%, according to Bureau of Labor Statistics figures.

So, most of us have had pay increases that more than keep pace with the rising cost of living. However, we are not looking after the kids, sick, retired, homeless and helpless in the same way through the United Fund.

Your heart tells you those are just the people who should be protected from inflation.

But unless we give more every year in proportion to the changing cost-of-living and in proportion to our own increasing prosperity, then our deeds—or lack of them—speak louder than words, and tell the world we are heartless and selfish.

Need for Higher Giving
Did your contribution go up at least 10% since 1967?

Some pledges were made years ago for a specific amount of money every year and have never been changed.

If you are one of them, won't you increase it now, to match today's needs, and to give thanks for your own prosperity today?

If you have never given regularly, why don't you start today? The need is great. You'll feel twice the man when you know you are doing your fair share.

If there's no collection at your place of work, why don't you ask the boss to arrange it—and to do his fair share?

Otherwise, you can always address your contribution to the Tri-Cities Area United Fund, 2021 Edison avenue, Granite City.

Country Club Homes Complex To Be Expanded

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

With an area for 560,000 and over homes already a beautiful reality, construction is expected to begin soon on related projects, including a shopping center and apartment buildings.

The Country Club Complex, located adjacent to the Sunset Hills Country club on the east edge of the Quad-Cities, encompasses the 43-acre Country Club Estates and a 123-acre area for stores and 13 multi-family residential buildings, including two large four-wing apartment structures.

The development will be the fulfillment of a dream for the Cassens family, one of the most well known in Madison county.

Arnold Cassens first envisioned the complex in 1967 and the land has now been purchased. Roads have been paved, and the first phase of the Country Club Estates residential area and several luxury homes have been completed and occupied, with ample room left for more residences on rolling, wooded land.

Space in the shopping center has not yet been leased. Room will be provided for about a dozen stores.

Nearby will be a recreation building, professional offices and a motor hotel. Facilities in the recreation building will include a motion picture theater and bowling lanes.

Touring the area with a Press-Record newsman, Mr. Cassens noted that the tract is located adjacent to the Sunset Hills club's golf course and lake, and is close to the 2600-acre South-

$1,300,097 Sought from State For School of Dental Medicine

An operations budget request for $1,300,097 to finance Southern Illinois University during the 1971-72 fiscal year was approved Friday by the SIU board of trustees. It will be forwarded to the Illinois State Board of Higher Education.

Requested for the Southwest-ern campus for new and improved programs is $4,263,545, which includes: for the School of Dental Medicine, $1,377,097; Master of Science Degree in Nursing, $20,757; Bachelor of Arts Degree in Human Services, $80,438; Cultural and Performing Arts, $233,800; Doctoral Program in Education Specialization in Instructional Programs, $92,246; Doctoral Program in Administration, $69,600; Supplemental Instructional Program for Minority Disadvantaged and

Academic Probationary Students, $147,330; Parks College of Aeronautical Engineering, $177,056; Masters Program in Psychology, expanded to provide for disadvantaged students, $50,844; Bachelor of Science Degree in Computer Science, $89,296; Research in Environmental Studies, $43,800; Organized Research Supplemental Funding, $76,500;

University-wide programs are Data Processing, $1,209,749 and Fire Protection, $25,666.

The request presents an increase of $21,088,703 over financing approved for the current fiscal year. More than $9 million of the increase is for funding new programs and improvement of existing ones, according to Administrative Council Chairman Clarence Stephens, who presented the request to the trustees.

Comparison of amount budgeted for the current year and the requests for 1970-71 is difficult because of a new format required by the Board of Higher Education, as explained by Budget Officer Clifford Burger.

Total appropriation for 1970-71 was $84,794,768. From this amount $3,339,300 in retirement payments should be deducted for comparative purposes since retirement contribution requests for 1971-72 will be made for all state institutions by the Board of Higher Education. The "net" amount for 1970-71 was $81,455,468.

Among amounts requested for 1971-72 are: Instruction, including salaries, $63,087,184; Organized Research, $345,239; Extension and Public Service, $4,515,425; Operation and Maintenance of the Physical Plant, $11,481,169; Statutory and Student Aid, $335,315 and Price Increases, $1,015,408.

A total of $2,777,061 is asked to cover costs for the two new or improved University-wide programs, plus 16 for the Carbondale campus and the 17 for the Southwest campus.

Under new and improved programs are: Carbondale, for which $3,778,701 is requested, are the Learning Resources and Self Instruction Center, $300,890; The School of Medicine, $2,500,000; College of Human Resources Development, $84,930; Master of Arts Degree in Black American Studies, $55,940; the increased payroll for the Security Force, expanded by 23 within the past year; Health Care Development, $46,315; College of Law, $86,400.

Fund Drive in Final Two Weeks

The Tri-Cities Area United Fund drive moved into its final two weeks with previously unreported contributions scheduled for announcement in a report session at noon Thursday.

Fund pledges to date stand at $2,080 or $2,825, of the $407,000 quota necessary to support 19 health-welfare-service agencies in the four-community area during 1971.

Drive officials said this total included incomplete reports from commercial, manufacturing and utility drive divisions, all of which are expected to make more substantial pledge reports in this week's meeting.

Contributions already reported are almost double the amount of pledges announced in the same phase of the campaign last year, when only 249, or $137,000 of the $405,000 quota, had been announced, according to J. S. M. Dashwood, general chairman of the 1970 fund raising drive.

The final report session will be held Friday, Oct. 30. Drive leaders said no extension of the drive deadline will be made this year and division chairmen urged donors to complete their reports for one of the two remaining report sessions.

Bulk of the funds pledged thus far were reported in the Industrial Firms group, with $112,180 pledged, and the In-ternational Employees group with $126,229 pledged.

'ISH' THE IMPISH TIGER dresses up the Tri-Cities Area United Fund progress indicator unveiled Friday in Civic Park. Park District employees, Albert Westphal, at left, and Earl Bunsmeier, erected the hand-painted marker, donated by Dale Dickey Sign Co. Progress in obtaining $407,000 to operate 19 area UF health-welfare-service agencies in 1971 is recorded on the tiger's tail which shows close to $260,000 in contributions to date.

Heavy Loot in Area Burglaries

A service station was looted of an estimated $1000 worth of equipment and accessories and a home in Belleville was broken into in a house burglary during weekend crimes reported to police.

Four worth of items were stolen from a church and a school also were reported.

Burglars entered a service station at 4170 Nameoki road, Saturday night or early Sunday, taking an assortment of equipment, tools, batteries and tires.

Bill Falls, the owner informed police Sunday. Entry was obtained by knocking out the bottom pane of glass in an overhead door. The thieves left the same way.

Value of the stolen items was estimated by the station operator at about $1000. He said missing items included four new batteries; four recharged snow tires; five white wall tires; a battery charger; floor jack; tire plug gun; oil filter wrench; a box and open-end wrenches; a generator and regulator; a starter tester; two drills; a mil-fer air gun; set of drill bits in metal box.

Die and tap set in a plastic box; six piece spindle set and tie-d nuts; two crescent wrenches; between eight and ten open-end wrenches; drive sockets in a plastic container; two drive ratchets with sockets; and ten sockets; a sparkplug ratchet, sockets and extensions; drive ratchet with extension and numerous sockets; two pair of channel locks; five pair of pliers; a side cutter; brake adjuster tool; eight screwdrivers; a transmission wrench and vicegrips.

Items valued at $810 were stolen in a burglary at the home of Wesley Bishop, 1725 Olive street, which occurred between 7 and 11 p.m. Saturday. Police said the intruders gained entry into the dwelling by prying open the front door with a crow bar.

City of Venice Changes Regular Meeting Schedule

The Venice city council voted to change its regular meeting Friday night to Friday afternoon, Oct. 23, to coincide with the regular meeting of the Venice Health Board, in which Bill the city has been reducing fund allocations and that an attempt by the county mental health board to eliminate the Quad-City and Alton centers is possible, council members recommended an investigation into the amount of taxes paid for health care services in the Quad-City area.

The council adopted an ordinance fixing regular council sessions for every other Tuesday night, beginning Nov. 3. The action was based on prior discussions in which council members said there were more council activities on Friday nights than on other nights of the week.

Because the ordinance provides for regular meetings "every other" Tuesday, the Venice council therefore will conduct 26 regular meetings a year, instead of 24 under the previous schedule. In the past the council has met twice monthly on the first and third Friday of each month.

Miss Myers grew up in Ocala, Ga., and then went to public schools in New Jersey. She received her theatrical training at the New Theater School in New York under such craftsmen as George S. Kaufman, Moss Hart, John Harris and John Golden. She made her Broadway debut in "Grown Pains" at the Ambassador Theater.

On the west coast she appeared in "The Blacks," "A Member of the Wedding," "No-body Loves an Albatross" and "The Ponder Heart."

Her movie career began with "The Green Pastures," "Take A Giant Step" and then included "All The Fine Young Cannibals," "Dear Heart," "Rachel Cade" and "Fate Is The Hunter."

Computer Criminal Record System Under Development

Landolt Gets $1095 In Back Pay Per Diem Pay

Harold Landolt, chairman of the county board of supervisors, received back pay of $1095 at last week's board meeting, much to the chagrin of his political foes on the board.

It compensates him for attending monthly county board meetings since he became chairman of both the supervisory board and of the county board of review in 1963.

It had been generally held that a member of the county board could not be paid for more than one day of services rendered on one calendar day.

But Marshall Smith, assistant state's attorney, obtained a legal opinion from the state attorney general ruling that per diem payments could be paid for services rendered the same day on both boards as the services are rendered in different capacities.

An objection was raised by Joseph Wasker of Alton but the back pay was approved.

Illinois is participating in a multi-state effort to develop a total computerized criminal record system, according to Illinois Department of Law Enforcement Director Herbert D. Brown.

Brown said Bureau of Identification Supt. Gary D. McAlvey is Illinois' voting representative in Project SEARCH, an 18-month study by 15 states to develop a computerized criminal justice information system.

SEARCH, which stands for System for Electronic Analysis and Retrieval of Criminal Histories, is funded by a $2.5 million grant from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration and participating states.

"During the past few years, computers have proven to be an effective weapon in the war against crime," Brown said. "The application of computers to law enforcement provides technological breakthroughs in crime detection and solution that, to the layman, reads very much like science fiction."

Fingerprints Via Satellite

McAlvey joined the project in September and was appointed a member of the technical committee which will be considering such possibilities as transmitting fingerprints via satellite.

Project SEARCH developed from the need for a system of interstate exchange of offender history records for police, prosecution, judicial and correctional agencies, McAlvey explained.

The project, scheduled to be in operation by July 1, 1971, involves Arizona, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Illinois, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Texas and Washington.

"Basically, the SEARCH system will be a national directory which records an individual's arrest for serious crimes such as felonies or gross misdemeanors, the disposition of each case and all his subsequent formal contacts with criminal justice agencies," McAlvey said.

"We're not talking about trying to create a 'Big Brother' file but a central index which will practically eliminate the advantage of the highly mobile modern criminal."

FBI State Records

Presently, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and most state identification bureaus attempt to keep records of arrest and prison admissions and fingerprints, he said.

However, McAlvey noted, many law enforcement agencies do not submit fingerprints to the FBI since it is not required. Also, mandatory reporting requirements by law enforcement agencies to a state bureau of identification does not exist in some states.

Without a central system, he said, the time consumed in obtaining records from other agencies through the mail is measured in days or weeks in most places and is, therefore, not useful in police or court actions.

"Today's criminal is as mobile as the society in which he lives," McAlvey said. "Take, for example, the check passer who practices his talents in as many as four cities in any given day. Without rapid access to complete criminal history on this type of subject, one community after another will be easy prey to his art. Once arrested, he might be released if officials are unaware of his history."

Unnecessary Jailings

In another case, McAlvey said, an offender might be jailed unnecessarily, whereas if adequate information were readily available, he might safely be released pending trial.

"It is clear that a system is required that will provide a means of determining the nature of prior criminal activities in time to be useful for some of the critical decisions related to arrest and prosecution," he said.

During the past summer, seven of the 15 SEARCH states converted about 10,000 criminal histories as the data base for a trial run of the system, he said. After an evaluation of this demonstration, recommendations will be made regarding the possibility of a nationwide system.

The SEARCH system will include a central index of criminal histories, directly accessible by users in each state. The index will contain only abbreviated data, referring the inquiring agency to the state holding the full criminal record, McAlvey said.

The index is designed to be sufficient for answering inquiries by police officers needing a quick response as to whether or not a person has a prior record and some brief indication of his offenses.

Public Information

"It is important to note that the information which will be included in this system is, in a fundamental sense, a matter of public record," McAlvey said. "It will be information which has been recorded by police or other criminal justice officers in performing their public duties, and most of it is already available from the files of local, state and federal criminal justice agencies."

McAlvey explained that the system will include state and federal names of those persons for whom at least one criminal charge has reached a final disposition and for whom an FBI number has been assigned.

SEARCH will exclude information concerning juvenile offenders, misdemeanor drunk and traffic arrests, intelligence data, unsubstantiated reports or conjectures.

"I want to emphasize that Project SEARCH data will be available only to sworn law enforcement officers," McAlvey said. "SEARCH was not, and is not now, designed either as a general source of data for government or as a segment of any comprehensive governmental data system."

300,000 Criminal Records

McAlvey said the 300,000 SEARCH states will make up the initial file will be provided by the 15 SEARCH states. Participating states will build their data systems around already existing central computer systems.

In Illinois, the Bureau of Identification, a division of the Department of Law Enforcement, will be the "custodian," responsible for controlling the records and monitoring the use of SEARCH. Ideas included dog showings with prizes, training sessions in obedience, brag time and reports by members on general information such as medical reports, points of law, dog stories, dog jokes and anything else they may want to share with other members.

A quiz on identifying 87 breeds of dogs was given to the members present. The winner, identifying 46 breeds, was Rose Ficken, who won a prize of rawhide bones.

Airle, Rose Ficken's German shepherd puppy, won second place in the six-to-nine puppy female class at the Gateway Breeders Fun Match, it was reported at the meeting.

Beldens Azeshia, an Afghan hound puppy owned by Christine Shaffer, won first place in the two-to-four-year old female puppy class in the show.

The next regular meeting of the club will be Nov. 4. Those interested in attending should call Gail Shaffer at 981-5081 after 6 p.m. weekdays.

Madison Acts to Demolish Old Houses; Seek Owners

Efforts will be made to find the owners of several "dilapidated and deteriorated dwellings" in West Madison, despite an urgent plea by Madison Fifth Ward Alderman John Haynes that immediate action is necessary to demolish the houses and eliminate a neighborhood hazard and eyesore.

Razing of the vacant and run-down houses was recommended to the Madison city council by Curtis King sr., assistant building inspector, who said the eight dwellings listed "are beyond repair."

The structures recommended for demolition are located at 817 Webster street; Third and Webster streets; 708 Madison street; 812 Madison street; 913 Webster street; 903 Washington street; 701 Washington street; and 812 Jackson street.

Advised by City Attorney Nick Vassileff that permission to raze the buildings must be obtained from the owners to protect the city, Alderman Haynes commented, "I believe the owners are either dead, or have moved to Mississippi, Arkansas or somewhere else. Probably, we never will be able to find them."

Must Be Torn Down

"These places must be torn down," the West Madison alderman continued, "two fires were set by vandals in the houses last night and today the people are in an uproar about it."

"The people have the feeling that we don't care, and we do care about the situation," he said.

"I have torn down about ten such places myself in the past and paid for it myself. I am willing to do the same thing to these, if necessary. This way at least I save the city some money," he added.

Vassileff explained that legal procedures require the city to notify the property owners of their responsibilities. If they refuse to take care of the property then the city can file a suit against the owner. "How long will that procedure take?" Alderman Haynes queried.

"About six to eight months," the attorney replied.

Ready to Fall Down

Alderman Haynes said the people in the neighborhood have torn down one dwelling themselves. "All but the roof and walls. First wind takes them along, it is going to fall down anyway," the council member said.

Questioned by Mayor Mike Sasyk about the condition of the buildings listed by the inspector, Alderman Haynes commented, "some have possums living in them. They are open to all kinds of wild life," he pointed out.

It was agreed to accept the list compiled by King, attempt to locate owners of the properties and also take photographs of the individual dwellings for the record.

A suggestion that items in the houses, such as plumbing fixtures, also should be removed, brought the remark from the senior council member—"These houses were built before indoor plumbing."

Vadalabene to Disclose Income If Elected Nov. 3

State Rep. Sam M. Vadalabene (D-Edwardsville) has renewed a pledge made earlier this year to reveal the sources and amount of his annual income, if elected. Vadalabene is Democratic candidate for the Illinois State from the 53rd district.

In a statement, Vadalabene explained that he believes "full financial disclosure by elected officials should not be a discretionary course, followed by some but ignored by others. It should be the basic duty of elected officials, a function to be fulfilled as soon as they take the oath of office."

"To keep public service a respectable and honorable position," the Edwardsville Democrat continued, "each official must do his utmost to live up to a code of ethics in government. Right now this code is mostly unwritten. It consists of general standards of propriety the public expects of its officials. I believe that if the electorate chooses to put its faith in a man, he has an obligation to the people and to the office to follow the code."

Granite City PRESS-RECORD

No Statutory Requirement
In Illinois full financial disclosure of income and assets is not required by law. The Illinois Governmental Ethics Act requires only a statement of interest by the legislator of offices, acquaintances or economic interest, which are regulated by state ethics or have legislative connections.

Lieutenant Governor Paul Simon has for some time made an annual disclosure of his income and asked his staff to do the same.

"I believe the Lieutenant Governor has set an admirable and necessary precedent and if elected, I pledge to follow his example," Vadalabene concluded.

Washington '1st in War, Peace,' 1st in Football with MHS Squad

By ROBERT MANGOFF

MHS Football Writer

The Madison high school Trojans, whose offense looked impressive in their last game against Triad, were held scoreless Friday night by the Washington Panthers in a game played in Washington, a suburb of Peoria. The final score was 32-0.

After leading 7-0 in the first quarter and 14-0 at the end of the half, the Panthers with a strong offense pulled ahead 20-0 after three quarters. Two touchdowns in the fourth quarter added to the victory margin.

The Panther attack was led by the effective running of backs Rabbit Everding, Steve Martin and Mark Koenig.

The Madison team, plagued by mistakes throughout the night, had its running attack halted for the first time this year, being held to 15 yards.

This forced the Trojans to concentrate on a mixture of running and passing rather than principally running. Each phase was unsuccessful in penetrating the Washington defense.

On the other hand, Washington was successful with a running attack mixed with a few scattered passes, basically the standard Trojan offense.

Taking the opening kickoff, Trojan Roger Glasper, 5-9, 160-pound halfback, ran the ball from the Madison 32.

After three runs, the Trojans were forced to punt.

The kick by sophomore Randy Graville, 5-9, 170-pound halfback, went out of bounds at the Panther 48. From this point, Washington moved to the Trojan 40, setting up a long run by Everding to the eight after he had broken several tackles.

Three plays placed the ball at the three-yard-line, and Steve Martin ran the ball into the end zone for Washington's first TD.

The kick by Stu Levenick made the score 7-0.

The kickoff by Koenig went out of bounds at the Trojan 25.

After a few runs and a pass interference penalty placed the ball on the Trojan 44, MHS was unable to move the ball.

After recovering a fumble late in the first quarter, the Trojans were once again stopped, losing the ball on downs on the Panther 48. From this point,

The Panthers drove to the Madison 37 by the end of the period. Washington on the same sequence of plays then moved to the 17 but was halted. A field goal attempt by Levenick failed.

The Trojans were forced to kick from their 10. A weak punt traveled to the 27, where it was downed, and the Panthers immediately moved to the four almost entirely on runs by Everding.

From the four, Martin ran for a TD and Levenick's kick was good, making the score 14-0.

The kickoff was caught by Dwayne Shaw, 5-11, 200-pound senior halfback, who ran the ball from his 18 to the Trojan 33.

The Trojans threatened as they drove to the Panther 38, mainly on the passing of Austin Lewis, 6-1, 190 senior quarterback.

Lewis passed to his halfbacks, Shaw and Ed Chandler, 5-11, 185-pounder.

At this point, the Trojans lost the ball on downs after two incomplete passes and two unsuccessful runs.

In the second half, Henry Rhodes, 6-2, 235 senior tackle, kicked the ball to Martin, who ran from his 20 to the Panther 40.

After three plays, in which Washington moved only three yards, the hosts were forced to punt.

There were no other threats until later in the third quarter, when a punt by Madison was downed on its 35. Short runs by Koenig and Everding moved the ball to the 31 and Everding broke through the Trojan defense and ran to the three.

After three plays, Quarterback Joe Chasco ran to the sidelines for a two yard TD carry. The kick failed and Washington led 20-0.

Trojan Shaw, taking the kickoff on the 26, ran the ball to the 33 and Madison struggled to the 50. There the drive was halted on a pass interception by Koenig, who ran from his 45 to the Trojan 11.

On the next play, at the start of the fourth quarter, Chasco threw a touchdown pass to John Day, who ran it in from the 10. The conversion kick was no good and the score stood 26-0.

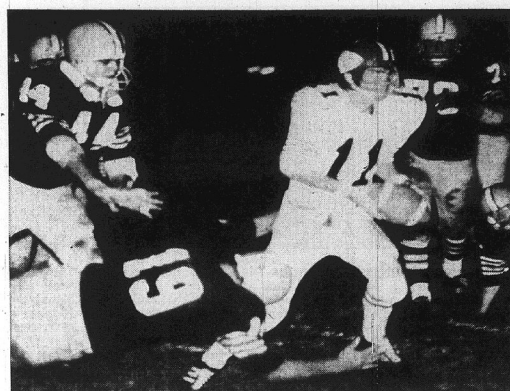

Madison once again could not move the ball and was forced to kick. The punt traveled to the Madison 49, where it was downed.

49-Yard TD Rumble
On the next play, Koenig, showing tremendous power, burst through the middle and rambled the 49 yards needed. A conversion run failed, leaving the score 32-0.

Madison threatened to score on a drive started at its 17, highlighted by two consecutive passes from Lewis to Bobby Simms, 5-7, 185 senior end, for gains of 25 and 31 yards.

However, after four plays, Kim Brush recovered a fumble on the Panther 20.

The Trojans had another chance later in the game when a Panther punt traveled only to the Washington 22. But a Madison player fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Panther Howard Spring, allowing Washington to run out the clock.

CENTER OF ATTENTION in high school football invariably is the player with the ball. In this case, Warrior Quarterback Don Harris (11) has the pigskin and Wood River Oilers in hot pursuit include Greg Burk (44) and Bill Culp (19). GCHS won 20-13 Friday night at Wood River.

NOT A RAIN DANCE but a bit of the hitting and maneuvering which went on during Granite City's 20-13 win at Wood River Friday. Warriors in light uniforms include Dennis Kunneman (42), Brad Briggs (52) and Dave Hordesky (60) and among the Oilers visible are Greg Burk (44) and Tim Campbell (30).

Wilson, Kunneman, Harris Spark GC to 20-13 Win at Wood River

By TERRY TOTH
GCHS Football Writer

Granite City's fighting Warriors must have thought they were dreaming Friday night. Or was it almost a nightmare?

Their game at Wood River turned out to be one of their most mixed-up contests of the season, but they won, 20-13, to improve their Southwestern Conference record to 2-1 and their overall mark to 4-1.

The game started as usual. Showing fine offensive power, GCHS scored first, early in the first quarter, and again in the second quarter.

After an out-of-bounds kick gave Granite City the ball on its own 40, runs by Mike Wilson and Don Harris brought the ball to the Wood River four, from where Wilson went over for a touchdown. Joe Wallace kicked the extra point for a 7-0 lead.

The second TD came after a 54-yard drive. Passes from Harris to Stan Staydublar and runs by Dennis Kunneman and Harris brought GCHS to the enemy 40-yardline, and a penalty moved the ball half the distance to the goal.

Gain 14-0 Lead
Kunneman plunged over for a TD and Wallace again booted the ball with precision as the Warriors moved ahead 14-0.

That ended the scoring for the half, and it looked as though Granite City had the game fairly well wrapped up. It had 104 yards rushing to 33 for Wood River and led 11-1 in the second half.

Dividing Catch for TD
Alternating passes and runs, the Oilers advanced to the five, and Bill Culp threw to Monte Gardner for a touchdown. Gardner's great diving catch left the Warrior defense in disbelief. Culp kicked the extra point to make the score 14-7.

Wood River was not through. Early in the fourth quarter, it started to roll again, this time putting together a 76-yard drive, featured by effective running plays.

From the GCHS nine, Tim Campbell ran into the end zone to cut the lead to 14-13.

Defense Meets Test
A tie score or Oiler lead seemed possible, but the Warrior defense resolved not to lose through a two-point conversion, and stopped the play short of the goal.

This gave GCHS the lift it needed. The offense started on the move, this time from its own 30.

Excellent runs by Wilson brought the Warriors to the enemy 20, and Kunneman

Cougar Cagers Begin Sessions Under Dudley

Coach Jim Dudley held the first practice session of his Southern Illinois University-Southwestern varsity basketball squad Thursday with 20 prospects reporting. The Cougar cagers, who will be playing their fourth season in collegiate competition, will open the season against the University of Missouri at St. Louis Rivermen, Dec. 1 at the St. Louis Arena.

The opening game with UMSL, which has beaten SIU-SW four straight times—real badly all four times—is just a slight indication of the problems facing Dudley as he starts his career as head coach of the Cougar cagers.

Dudley, who replaced Harry Gallatin last April as varsity coach, came here following an impressive 65 victories and 22 losses (.747) as head coach at Lake Land Junior College at Mattoon.

Greeting Dudley were five lettermen from the 7-16 SIU-SW club of last season: John (Champ) Summers, Rich Essington, Jack McDele, Dennis Carroll and Mike Moore. Summers, whom Gallatin played at forward last season due to a lack of taller performers at the positions, paced the Cougars in the 1969-70 season with a 22.47 points per game average. He will be trying to land one of the guard spots.

Eslington at Guard
Eslington, third highest scorer for SIU with a 15.32 point per game figure, is also a guard candidate. Moore dropped off the squad last season and McDele was used only in spots. Captain Bernie Pitts (16.81 points per game average) of Alton graduated.

At the first session, too, were four junior colleges transfers who "came along" with Dudley from Lake Land... 6'3" Jerry Bloemer, forward, 6'8" Gene (Red) Bounds, center, Dennis Throneburg, 6'1" deadeye foul-shooter, and Otis Ward, a rugged, high-jumping 6'2" forward.

On hand, too, was Roy Witt, a transfer from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, who played the last two seasons at Kaskaskia Junior College, and Kitch was a member of Eastern Illinois U. squad before transferring to SIU-SW last year.

Covington played his high school ball at Washington tech and graduated way back in 1955, making him older than Dudley, who is 33. Rollins played at Alton high.

Coolidge Leads Field In Cross Country Meet

The third annual Inner City junior high school cross country meet held Thursday was won by Coolidge with 119 points. Grigsby finished second with 114 points.

Dennis Cruse, Coolidge, at 6:44 came in first, followed by Dan Grupe, Coolidge, 6:48; and Jeff Schleicher, Coolidge, 6:52. The first three runners all broke the old course record of 6:56 set by Steve Worley earlier this year.

The schools ran 10 boys. Following in the first 10 were Lane Cravatt, Grigsby, 7:25; Chris Louis, Coolidge, 7:27; Keith Roy, Grigsby, 7:29; Danny Inlow, Central, 7:30; Allan Burris, Coolidge, 7:31; Larry Schleicher, Central, 7:33; and Fred Summers, Prather, 7:34.

Speed Skating Begins Wednesday at Park

Speed skaters. That's the answer to the question "Who are the youngsters running and exercising in Wilson park by the ice rink?"
For the past 10 weeks, 25 boys and girls have attended twice-a-week training sessions conducted by the coaches of the Gateway Speed Skating Club, and are intended to physically prepare the youths for the approaching skating season.

The workouts consist of 20 minutes of running and 10 minutes of exercising designed to strengthen the legs and back. Some of the youths have yet to lace on a pair of racing skates. If their efforts at the workouts is any indication, many will be on their way to earning the title of speed skater by the end of the season.

Supervised training session on the ice will begin at 4 p.m. Wednesday and continue every Wednesday during the season.

Anyone at any age may participate. Walter Bruch, 2731 Michigan avenue, an instructor, said "It isn't necessary to have been in training half the summer or even that a person know how to skate. Anyone can learn."

Witnesses said the auto was almost stopped when it struck the boy. Brian underwent x-rays of the chest, pelvis, left arm and back before being admitted to pediatric.

State police said the truck, driven by John J. Morrissey, 46, Pacific, Mo., and a car driven by Russell G. Dawson, of the West 22nd street address, collided at the intersection.

A Venice man was booked on two charges by Granite City police at 9:45 a.m. Saturday, following a n accident at 25th street and Nameoki road.

Anthony J. Keeney, 45, of 1018 Second street, Venice, was charged with leaving the scene of an accident and driving with an expired driver's license. He was released on $50 cash bond.

GC Steel Offers New Product in Cold Rolled Sheet

Effective today, Granite City Steel Co. will offer a new product classification of cold rolled steel sheet, to be designated "Prime B" for applications where non-critical surface and flatness standards are acceptable to the user.

John A. Teschen, vice president-sales, said the base price for "Prime B" cold rolled coils will be $8.35 per 100 pounds. The base price of "Prime B" cold rolled cut lengths will be $8.50 per 100 pounds.

Granite City Steel also is establishing the grade of "Prime A" for cold rolled steel sheet which must be processed to meet requirements for controlled surface and flatness. The base price on coils and cut lengths of "Prime A" will remain at $8.95 per 100 pounds, the same base price now charged on prime cold rolled sheet.

Mr. Teschen said the company's policy of not increasing base prices on a product for at least a year after an increase would not, of course, apply to the new grade of "Prime B" cold rolled where the base price has been reduced.

Granite City Steel produces plate, hot and cold rolled sheet, galvanized sheet and other flat rolled steel products. Plant and main offices are in Granite City, Illinois, in the St. Louis metropolitan area, and the company supplies manufacturers in a number of other steel users in the Midwest, South and Southwest.

Youngsters Vote to Choose School Patrol Captains

What goes through the mind of a ten or eleven-year-old child when he hears adults discussing elections and why "everyone must get out and vote?"

The answers were varied; interesting and somewhat surprising to Mitchell school faculty members and visitors at the elementary school during a series of pre-election events held last week, climaxed with balloting at 1 p.m. Friday for the posts of school patrol captains.

Winning candidates were Tina Taylor, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arvil Taylor, Rural Route Two, Box 771, who received 84 votes, and Danny Shemwell, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Shemwell, Rural Route Two, Box 784, who tallied 107 votes. Both are pupils in Mr. Ted Brown's sixth grade classroom.

Other candidates, nominated in each of four 6th grade rooms, were:

Mark Presley and Laura Browning, students of Mrs. Beverly Scroggins; Jim Mathis and Glenda Oliver, from Alfred Fuller's sixth grade room; and Rod Hartzell and Robin Fitzhugh, students in Mrs. Jo Ann Pelate's class.

Voting in the contest was conducted by secret ballot with a total of 400 votes cast by students in the fifth and sixth grades.

Although voting was confined to fifth and sixth graders, the entire school became enthused with the election, according to Arthur Menendez, Mitchell principal.

Special guests were invited to the school last week to discuss voting procedures and answer questions posed by the youngsters, he said.

Attorney Speaks

City Attorney Leon Scroggins of Granite City appeared before the student body Wednesday to explain voting regulations, eligibility requirements and how elections are authorized.

"It was surprising the number and types of questions the youngsters posed," the principal said. "They were most interested in what could be done to remove an elected official from office if he failed to perform his job."

"Can an insane person vote, was another question asked the attorney," Menendez said. He noted that several children believed to vote was mandatory and that you "must" vote in every election. "None theorized what they thought the punishment would be if one did not choose to vote," he added.

Chouteau Township Supervisor Walter Sparks provided the students with literature concerning the new voting machines which explained how to operate the equipment. The children also were urged to go with their parents to view the demonstrations on use of the voting machines held last week at the Mitchell Water Co. office. Other election material, obtained from the court house in Edwardsville, included instructions on how to mark a ballot and specimen ballots, Menendez said.

Make Campaign Posters

Throughout election week, campaign posters were made by the youthful candidates and their supporters and displayed in the school building. "The candidates also were kept busy presenting campaign speeches to the voters," Menendez said.

Adding realism to Friday's election was use of a "revived" ancient voting booth left over from the time when Mitchell was an independent school district, the principal explained.

The students painted and decorated the booth and ballot box and also hand-lettered other election material.

A board of election judges, composed of Karen Davis, Lori Hawkes and Rhonda Sparks, was given pre-election instruction on voting procedures by Mrs. Martha Katzman, secretary to the Mitchell school principal.

"Judges" Sworn In

The three judges, all sixth grade students, were selected by their home room teacher, Ted Brown, on the basis of dependability, Menendez explained. The trio was "sworn in" in ceremonies similar to the actual swearing-in of election judges, he noted.

Brown who coordinated the entire election project was assisted by other sixth grade faculty members, the principal said.

"We were surprised at the amount of interest generated by the project and the enthusiasm displayed by the children to the problems involved in holding their own election," Menendez said. He noted that the school project was timely with the general election only three weeks away.

Catches Juvenile

Upon returning home at 4:07 p.m. Sunday, Herbert Grammer, 2600 Madison avenue, discovered a side window open and saw a boy running from the yard. He chased the juvenile, caught him then held the youth in custody until police officers arrived. Police said the youth's bicycle was found leaning against the house. Grammer reported $10 missing from the dwelling.

Vandals Damage Car

Vandals threw sand and motor oil on a 1968 auto owned by Wayne Painter, 2124 Benton street. The owner told police his fist. The man then drove his auto south on State street, toward Madison, Brandt said.

Brandt said the assailant, described as tall, dark-haired and about 20 years of age, alighted from a late model blue auto, asked Brandt if he knew a "Mr. Dirksen" and when told "yes," struck Brandt in the face with his fist. The man then drove his auto south on State street, toward Madison, Brandt said.

Unknown Assailant Strikes Man in Face

Brandt said the assailant, described as tall, dark-haired and about 20 years of age, alighted from a late model blue auto, asked Brandt if he knew a "Mr. Dirksen" and when told "yes," struck Brandt in the face with his fist. ## Social Concerns College Planned For Carbondale

Southern Illinois University's board of trustees, meeting Friday at Carbondale, approved planning steps for a new Carbondale campus college that will focus on social problems and concerns.

As tentatively outlined, the new College of Human Resources Development will have a core of some existing institutes and will be related to various departments.

Robert Lyster, chancellor of SIU at Carbondale, said the college will mobilize the talents of professionals to concentrate on special problems of the "larger society" and train students in special kinds of social service work.

The board's action Friday was to approve the college in principle. SIU will seek a $84,000 grant through the Board of Higher Education to cover planning details over the next eight to 10 months.

Units which may be associated with the new college are the Center for the Study of Crime, Delinquency and Corrections, Community Development Institute, design department, Rehabilitation Institute and possibly the Black American Studies Program.

In other action, the SIU trustees approved reorganization of the School of Technology under a new name.

It will be called the School of Engineering and Technology and will consist of five departments: electrical sciences and systems engineering, engineering mechanics and materials, occupational education, technology, and thermal and environmental engineering.

The School of Technology was formed in 1960 after the state legislature approved the engineering degree at SIU.

It has operated with no departments but with "professors-in-charge" of four basic programs — engineering, applied science, industrial technology and engineering technology — plus a faculty chairman in industrial education.

The new organization, said Dean Thomas Jefferson, will express the school's broadened curriculum and development since 1960.

The Granite City Association of Educational Secretaries will focus the attention of members on special education at the group's Nov. 7 meeting, to be held at the Region 1 Special Education District office, 2801 Madison avenue, Mrs. Martha Rochester, president, announced.

Thirty members met at Parkview school with Mrs. Agnes Fryntko, principal, welcoming the group. W. ## Man in Burglary Ring Sentenced To Year in Jail

Carlos Merchant, 25, was sentenced to a year on the state prison farm at Vandalia last week in Madison county circuit court after pleading guilty to charges of burglary and forgery in connection with a series of crimes in the Quad-City and Madison county area.

The plea was entered after the court had selected four members of a trial jury. The penalty, assessed by Associate Circuit Judge Michael Kinney, included a period of two years probation following the prison term. He was one of six persons arrested last April as Granite City police cracked a burglary ring operating here.

One previously was sentenced to a prison term at Menard state penitentiary, and trials are pending for others in the case.

Grants Probation
Judge Kinney granted two years probation to James E. Jones, Sotuh Roxana, who pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary at the Granite City Dodge agency last April.

According to a new method being instituted in the court system here, the probation period will expire in one year and nine months unless Jones violates terms of his probation, in which case he would serve three months on the state prison.

David Hoffman, charged in the same case with Jones, pleaded guilty to a burglary charge and applied for probation, with a hearing set for Nov. 4.

A tentative trial date of Nov. 16 was set for Jake Ford, Madison Garrett Jr. and Conrad Crook on charges of robbery and burglary.

Set for trial on Nov. 9 are cases against Harold Vaughn, Granite City, charged with arson and theft in connection with a fire which gutted the Gasen drug store building last year, and Granville Butler and Betty Gableman, both of State Park Place, arrested on theft charges last December.

A probation hearing for Jesse Ybarra, charged with illegal possession of narcotics, which had been scheduled last week, was continued until Nov. 23 on a motion by the defense attorney.

Jack Friedman Art Exhibit Opens Tuesday

An exhibition of the paintings of Jack Friedman opens tomorrow at the First National Bank in Madison. Twelve selected paintings of the Madison furniture dealer will be displayed in the bank lobby at 600 Madison avenue.

Friedman and his family have owned the Friedman Furniture Co., Fifth street and Madison avenue, for 48 years. Jack has been active in the store since 1946 and was a resident of Madison and Granite City until eight years ago when the family moved to St. Louis.

Friedman began painting as a hobby in 1945 while in the Armed Forces. He attended the Chicago Art Institute and completed his first work, a still life of a coffee pot and coffee mill, which still hangs in the home of his mother. Friedman did not paint for 18 years from 1947 to 1965, but started again at the urging of his wife, Bernice.

Mrs. Friedman had become interested in sculpture and enrolled in a course in the University City Adult Education program and literally "dragged me along with her," he relates. Friedman also studied art while a student at Washington University.

An Artistic Family
Today the Friedmans are quite an artistic family. "Our den looks like a Greenwich Village work shop with Bernice's sculpturing, my painting and the kids also are interested in painting and crafts," Friedman explained. The Friedmans have four children. "People are surprised to learn I'm color blind," said Jack. "I have a difficult time with reds and greens."

Because of the demanding work schedule at the furniture store most of Jack's paintings are done at night and many of his works are copies of photographs. "I just don't have the time to set up and work on a scene; so I occasionally use my camera and take the photograph back to the den," he said.

Currently Jack is continuing his studies under Dimitri Zonia, one of the St. Louis area's best known artists. Among the paintings on exhibit will be three reflecting a new technique Friedman developed at the suggestion of Zonia. It involves coating the entire canvas with dark colors, then "wiping out" highlights. Among the most striking are "The Rabbi" done in blue and "The Old Man" and "Running Horse," completed in browns.

From his earlier period the exhibition will include "Russian Samovar," completed in 1947, and one of Friedman's favorites, "The Poker Players," a 1969 effort.

"Yes, it's one of my favorites," the artist-furniture dealer continued. "I think the old man, he was about 90, shows real character. The fact that he is holding seven cards confuses some people. Maybe he was in a game of seven card stud."

In One Color
Among the most unique paintings to be shown is a still life in just one color, varying shades of yellow.

Friedman has exhibited at the University City Spring Festival. Although, he has sold several of his works, Jack is reluctant to offer any for sale.

"I get attached to these paintings as I work on them and I hate to part with them. I have had five offers for 'The Rabbi.' Some day I'll have to sell some more. It's either that or build a bigger den."

The exhibition of the color-blind, furniture dealer, whose interest in painting was rekindled when his wife "dragged" him to a sculpture class will be in the lobby of the First National Bank in Madison, 600 Madison avenue, beginning tomorrow through Oct. 31.

"We are happy to show these outstanding works of one of our area's businessmen," stated Dr. John E. Lee, bank president. "We hope this is only the beginning. We have plans for coin collections and other hobby shows in the near future."

PICKING THE BEST. Jack Friedman, Madison furniture dealer, selects paintings he will exhibit in a showing at the First National Bank in Madison, which opens tomorrow. Friedman paints as a hobby and has studied art at the Chicago Art Institute. His works will remain on display in the bank lobby through Oct. 31.

Parents Arrested, Faith in Youth Upheld in Fined on Truancy Repayment of CYS Grant

Thirteen parents residing in the Granite City school district, charged with permitting their children to be truant from school, were fined $5 plus $10 costs each last week by Magistrate Joseph Kelleher.

They are Mr. and Mrs. William McKee, Rural Route One; Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie Knuckles, 2906 Myrtle avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fuller, 2536 State street; Vail Norwood, 1632 Maple street; Mr. and Mrs. James Hotz, 2401 Kirkpatrick Homes; Mr. and Mrs. William Jones, 2712 Denver street; Ruby Duncan, 1943a Delmar avenue; and Dorothy Thomas, 3612 Kirkpatrick Homes, whose case was continued 30 days after she pleaded guilty.

Warrants for the arrest of three other parents were issued when they failed to appear in court. Robert Barnhart, 2001 Kirkpatrick Homes, was arrested on the truancy charge and was released on $25 cash bail until Thursday. The other couple was being sought.

The complaints were signed by William Harris, youth officer.

The responsible act of a Madison youth proves once again what Coordinated Youth Services personnel believe—that the vast majority of today's young people are basically responsive and conscientious citizens. C. A. "Bud" McMillan, director of the local United Fund agency, said this week.

The CYS executive director made the remark as he displayed a $50 money order made out to the youth agency by a West Madison teenager, who now is an outstanding freshman athlete and scholar at a large state university.

McMillan said a Madison high school administrator approached the agency last February to report that a senior at the local school had scored "extremely high" on the National Merit Scholarship Awards program and had qualified to receive a full academic scholarship to a state university.

The hitch, the administrator explained, was the student was unable to raise the $30 registration fee required by the university in advance. The youth belonged to a large family with younger brothers and sisters and little immediate cash, he said.

The educator said the registration money was needed immediately to enable the youth to accept the scholarship grant, which did not cover the initial $30 fee.

Coordinated Youth Services has advanced funds in the past for similar purposes and agreed to provide the money to the Madison youth.

"The question of repayment was not at issue, but the young man felt his responsibility in the matter and has repaid us," McMillan said.

"We are very glad as Coordinated Youth Services believes in investing in the future of any young person who needs help. Although not usually from a financial standpoint," the youth agency officer stressed.

Similar advances granted others in the past were treated as gifts, with no attempt made to repay the funds, he noted.

Gasoline Tanks to be Installed at Stations

Building permits to install two 6000-gallon gasoline tanks at service stations and another for a new home in Granite City were issued last week.

Five permits during the week increased the totals for the first half of the month to 34 permits with values of $310,065.

The tank permits, which show $10 fees indicating costs of $500 each, are to be placed at Shell Oil Co. stations a 3260 Nameoki road and at 20th street and Madison avenue.

A permit for a seven-room home at 3313 Harvard drive to cost $18,000 was obtained by James Dumont. Other permits were issued to Verlin Rodgers, 2965 Iowa street, a room addition, $4000, and David Monroe, 2324 Cardinal avenue, to build a porch, $500.

Juvenile Home Not Working, May Be Closed--Smith

Madison county's new $500,000 juvenile detention home may be closed, Marshall Smith, assistant state's attorney, told the county board of supervisors last week.

The home, opened in September last year, "is costing the taxpayers $300,000 to $400,000 a year, and you are getting precious little or nothing for it," he said.

"The juvenile detention home is not working right," he said. "Everybody blames everybody else."

There is an overload of cases and a tremendous volume of paper work, he said, adding that there is no cooperation between the State Department of Corrections, the probation office, the state's attorney's office and the judges.

"We will have to take a real hard look at it," Smith said, and "if it doesn't work, shut it down. The detention home cannot be the sole answer to the juvenile delinquency problem."

Three Youths Sentenced
He said local authorities "do not like" the State Department of Corrections. "Nobody in the field wants to send these kids to jail," he said only three youths have been sentenced to state institutions in the last 18 months.

Schools and churches should become involved in the education of the delinquents, Smith said, and authorities should develop a table of organization, but he said he doubted if it would happen.

He noted that Southern Illinois University-Southwestern "had received a grant of $120,000 in addition to previous grants, for juvenile delinquency studies, but no one has heard of the results of the studies."

"We can't be bringing all these juveniles back to the detention home day after day," Smith said, "it's useless to be carrying on when we are not performing a function there."

Places Blame
William Webb of Granite City, chairman of the detention home who championed its development for a dozen years, told Smith that it is the fault of the law enforcement people, the state's attorney's office and the judges. "It's not us and not the people," Smith agreed.

The comments came on a proposal by Webb to purchase 29 new locks for detention home doors at a cost of $384 from the Folger Adams Co. of Joliet and to obtain bids to install the locks.

One board member doubted the advisability of the expenditure after hearing a rumor that the home may be closed and asked Smith for a report.

Webb said that adults were unable to do it, but "the kids are picking the original locks open," leading to a high escape rate. He added that his committee worked six months in determining the best and effective lock and its manufacturer. His proposals were approved.

Pfc. Russell Hughes To Fort Huachuca

A 17-year-old Madison soldier has been promoted to private first class and assigned to Fort Huachuca, Ariz. The serviceman, Pfc. Russell B. Hughes Jr., is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell B. Hughes, 13 Garesee Homes, Madison.

Pfc. Hughes departed for the Arizona military base Thursday, after spending a 14-day leave here with his parents. He attended Madison high school prior to volunteering for Army duty last March 24.

Upon completion of basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., Pfc. Hughes was assigned to the U. S. Army Southeastern Signal School at Fort Gordon, Ga., where he was graduated from a Communications Center Specialist course. He was promoted to his present rank shortly before his new assignment.

Friends of Museum Talk on Painting

Primitive painting, the art of the middle class, flourished in America from the time of the Revolution until the Civil War. Mrs. Willard G. Flagg, Edwardsville, told the Friends of the Madison County Historical Museum at their regular meeting Thursday.

"It was particularly popular in New England, New York and German Pennsylvania," she said.

Portraits had been painted for the colonists by English artists and their style and poses were copied by the American primitive painters who traveled about, painting their pictures, and sold them for whatever they could. Some bargained for meals and lodging or articles of merchandise in return for their work.

Mrs. Flagg explained that not many landscapes were executed by these painters but some people commissioned memorials which showed graves and tombstones and even funerals with members of the family assembled.

Mrs. Flagg illustrated her talk with slides of examples of the art she was speaking about. She was assisted by Mrs. Francis O. Burk, Edwardsville.

At the business meeting which preceded the program it was voted to purchase and present to the museum antique gold and crystal chandeliers for the mantle in the museum.

A potluck luncheon followed the meeting at which there was a sale of hand made articles and food for the benefit of the museum. Mrs. Paul Lawson, Edwardsville, co-chairman of the organization, presided at the meeting.

Mrs. Eleanor Tutka, vocalist, sang "Ave Maria"; "Panis Angelicus"; and "On This Day", accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Helen McGarranah.

A floor-length gown of peau de soie and Chantilly lace was worn by Saturday's bride. The Empire bodice, A-line skirt, long sleeves which came to points over the hands, and the high rounded neckline were embroidered with lace and pearls.

The cathedral train was topped with a large self bow and encrusted with matching lace, and a cluster of lace petals trimmed with pearls secured the bride's veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of white snowdrift pom poms.

Mrs. Eva Jankowski, a sister of the bride, was honor attendant. Miss Shirley Kult and Mrs. Pat Nelson, sisters of the bridegroom, Miss Margaret Rozycki, a cousin of the bride, bridesmaids, and Judy Jarrell and Janice Milton, nieces of the bridegroom, junior maids, wore floor-length gowns of pink silk linen featuring Empire waists with set-in cummerbunds trimmed with rows of covered buttons in the back complementing the square necks and short bell sleeves. The skirts were slightly gathered and bows of saki linen secured their modesty veils. They held bouquets of pink snowdrift.

The bride's mother chose a dark pink dress, while the bridegroom's mother appeared in mint green. Both wore white snowdrift corsages.

Refreshments were served to 34 members, and prizes were won by Mrs. Edna Miller, Mrs. Velma Finney, and Mrs. Renee Jock. The next regular meeting will take place Oct. 28.

If the vacancy is in a Senatorial District with more than 28 months remaining in the term, the appointed senator shall serve until the next general election, at which time a senator shall be elected to serve for the remainder of the term.

If the vacancy is in a Representative District or in any other Senatorial District, the appointment shall be for the remainder of the term. An appointee shall serve until the next general election, at which time a representative shall be elected to serve for the remainder of the term.

With 'Friends' Like The 708 Board, Mental Health Clinics Won't Need Any 'Enemies'

The Madison County Mental Health (708) Board has defended its frequent heaped "surgery" on Community clinics and on programs for the retarded as ultimately beneficial to them. Judging by current reports that the actual goal is the death of the clinics, it is tragic that citizens and supervisors are allowing the "major surgery" to continue.

It is not necessary to defend the mental health centers and their expenditures as perfect order to believe that they should continue in operation. And enough is known of their accomplishments as well as shortcomings to know that the budget cuts intended for the 1970-71 fiscal year, are far too drastic. The 708 Board "surgeons" are using meat cleavers, not scalpels, in their attempt to achieve a "cure."

The thinking now being disclosed is that true efficiency can only be achieved by shutting down the Alton and Granite City clinics and combining them into a single clinic to be based at the county seat, Edwardsville.

Quadt-City and Alton area residents make up the bulk of the population and patient caseload, and the two existing clinics are essential if efficiency is the real objective. Satellite centers have been started and others have been planned to avoid excessive inconvenience for central and eastern portions of Madison county.

The densely-populated western section of the county has been tolerant and supportive of the centralization of many governmental services at Edwardsville, including authorizing the mental health tax and a large number of county facilities, including the $550,000 juvenile detention home which was criticized at the Oct. 14 County Board meeting as "a waste of money as costly and ineffective. The 'west' has leaned over backward to be regional minded, but the reported clinic shutdown plan is unjustified and unacceptable.

Members of the 708 Board have played the role of careful, cost-conscious friends of the taxpayer and working man, while in recent months dangling large sums of money in front of various county agencies and departments, not been receiving tax funds. It seems to be not so much a case of actual long-range savings but of crippling disabled community boards and programs and transferring financial favors to those who "part their hair right," politically and otherwise.

Quadt-City, Alton and other supervisors and assistant supervisors stand on their own feet and thwart such tactics but have let their hands be tied by the County Board committee system, under which "goer-alothers" with the powers-that-be are able to maintain a bit of influence and find themselves unable to accomplish much.

Reader Says Siding of Residence Is Being Affected by Air Pollution

To the Editor:

In re Mr. Erwin C. Hoelcher's nice letter on open burning appearing in the Press-Record, I have a few words to add.

First, doesn't it seem incredible that it took so long for air pollution fighters to tour the alleys and finally catch up on the oldrum-burning boys? It has been going on as long as I can remember in Granite City and that's a rather long lifetime.

The oldrum burners never cover the drum and never empty the rain-soaked lead covers; hence, the slow-burning, dry, belching out black and rancid smelling smoke to be inhaled by those trying to enjoy their own backyards. It even burns in the house well into the night, making one sick.

The oldrum is NOT for trash burning. It is for oldrum burners, with air holes is less offensive. And, by the way, if one took the time to burn oldrum properly, burning leaves, he would soon learn there need be very little smoke; burn as you rake. A small amount of dry leaves burns quickly—no pollution problems.

So, as Mr. Hoelcher suggests, let's burn between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. And how about setting trash burners regulations? Let's standardize them, burning leaves, he would soon learn there need be very little smoke; burn as you rake. A small amount of dry leaves burns quickly—no pollution problems.

While I am on the soapbox, I would like to ask whether those appointed to check into air pollution will center efforts more on the little home owners polluters rather than attack offenders in industry? When someone is under pressure from state officials to get "onto Granite City pollution problems, will they really realize the protection of GC citizens and their lungs or will be in

If the already severely hampered and demoralized Granite City and Alton clinics are forced to close, it will be a sorry commentary on the Madison county legislative body. Do Board Members Hagnauer, Moore, Briggs, Sparks, Bushler, Roach, Churavich, Johnson, Echols, Maurer and Deltour approve of what is happening?

Amendment to Illinois Banking Act on Pink Ballot Merits 'Yes' Votes by Quad-Cityans

In the Nov. 3 general election, decisions facing voters here include a proposed two-part amendment to the Illinois Banking Act to assure state-chartered banks competitive equality with national banks located in this state.

It is supported by the Illinois Municipal League, Illinois Bankers Association, Governor Ogilvie, Mayor Daley of Chicago, Illinois Attorney General William Scott, Commissioner of Banks and Trust Companies Roland Blaha and others, and we add our endorsement.

The amendment covers both powers exercised and merger methods; it does not permit branch banking. The first part grants state banks the same legal powers as national banks without making procedural amendments to the Illinois Banking Act—by legislation and a referendum—each time new federal legislation is passed. The second part deals with permitted terms of mergers, and parallels an amendment to the Illinois Business Corporation Act passed in June 1969.

An example of the inequity is that national banks had expressed statutory power to donate for public welfare and charitable purposes for many years before this power was given to Illinois state banks in 1957. National banks could join in the national period and all business by investing in the stock of small business corporations for four years before state banks received similar powers in 1961. National banks could have branches in foreign countries. Since 1913, Illinois state banks could do so beginning in 1967.

The amendment will appear on a special pink ballot (pink tab on voting machines). A majority of yes votes cast on the issue, is needed for passage.

Because the proposal does not change existing tax rates or tax structures and provides a needed procedural simplification, it enjoys bi-partisan support and is favored by leading civic, labor and business groups. Quad-Cityans should have no hesitation in casting a 'yes' vote.

Part of Depot Site Sought by Madison May Be Suitable for Industrial Growth

The move by the city of Madison to annex 333 acres of the 977-acre Granite City Army Depot is a refreshing, innovative approach to its need for "room to grow." Annexation of land to the east of Madison, perhaps as far as Indian Heights, also should be actively considered.

Whether the municipality is successful in its action may depend on the present thinking of the U.S. Department of Defense, which said in March that it will inactivate the Depot by July 1971. There have been some modifications of the March decision already, and it seems certain that part of the depot site will remain under permanent federal control as a housing area for military personnel assigned to St. Louis area training and duty.

With its Stephen A. Hagg Industrial Park well along the way toward full development, Madison is wise in trying to provide additional space for industrial firms. Its need for new residential areas also is obvious.

The claim that the depot site has been staked may have substantial legal standing, since the property is contiguous to Madison and has been publicly announced as available—and Madison officials "got there fastest with the mostest."

It will be interesting to watch the progress of the court proceedings.

Our financial share to the community. May God bless all of you for your service to the community. MRS. JOHN SCHRAEDER MRS. WILLIAM BEATTY —Quad City Council of Church Women United

VASES AT GRAVES TAKEN To the Editor:

QUAD-CITY WOMAN

VADALABENE SAYS FOE BACKS WILD SPENDING To the Editor:

My opponent has challenged me to debate the issues. If both of us were without legislative experience I could see value in a man-to-man confrontation to discuss the issues.

However, on positions and the differences between us are well known. The votes we have cast on the tax rate issue, the work we have done are all part of the public record.

Rather than the state rearrange an already heavily committed schedule, my opponent might be well advised to simply answer a few questions:

1. The Illinois General Assembly—with some arm-twisting from Governor Ogilvie—passed the tax rate measure which excessively increased taxes in our state. Why did you vote for it? 2. The bond issue for highways passed the legislature and was fortunately was unanimously approved by the Illinois Supreme Court. This loosely-drawn bill had so

FROM THE STATEHOUSE

LT. GOV. PAUL SIMON

Some Thoughts on Highway Safety

Not until you are in an accident do you fully appreciate the coordinated efforts of many people in keeping our highways safe.

Recently our car was stopped at a major intersection when a gentleman who did not see the stop sign ran into the back end of the car, causing $1,864 worth of body damage to our car, plus whatever motor and transmission difficulties we may have.

Very quickly two cars from the O'Fallon Police Department were present to direct traffic and assist. Then two state police cars came, as well as the O'Fallon Fire Department to wash the gasoline off the highway.

The work of these men is appreciated at all times, but particularly so at the time of an accident where there are others who deserve thanks also, people who do not thank sometimes:

- The radio dispatcher with the state and local police who sees that help is there quickly following an accident.
- People who stop to offer assistance.
- Secretary of State Paul Powell and his employees, who keep some of the more dangerous drivers off the road. The accident rate would be even higher if we did not have their services. Leaders of death police parties are not he and his office have done an outstanding job.
- Highway maintenance people who keep highways well-marked with stripes and stop signs, and keep obstacles off the road.

That does not mean that improvements are not in order. The man who hit us with his car apparently did not have insurance. My strong belief is that no one should be permitted to drive on Illinois highways without proof of having liability insurance. Denial of license would eliminate some of the most dangerous drivers from the road.

I also believe that the "Do Not Pass" signs which are now on the right hand side of the road should be shifted to the left side, as they are in Iowa and some other states, so that when a car is passing another car or a truck, the passing sign is not blocked from vision. This has been done on only a few miles of particularly dangerous roads in our state.

Obviously other things are needed to reduce the slaughter on the highways. We can thank those who already are doing much, and yet strive for even more.

School Maintenance in 45-15 Plan

By ROBERT H. BECKWITH, Manager
Illinois Chamber of Commerce Education Department
(Eighth of a series)

The 45-15 plan of the Valley under state aid reduced or allowed school district, Rome, to the detriment of the valley, Ill.:

WHEN CAN SCHOOL MAINTENANCE BE CONDUCTED? The School Code of Illinois Time for school maintenance now authorizes the state superintendent of public instruction to determine the general state aid appropriation to districts that operate on an approved 12-month calendar.

With careful forethought and advance planning, most major maintenance projects, disruptive to class sessions, can be carried for during times when four groups are not in school, the 1970-71 state aid computation. For Valley View's 1970-71 school year, there are three such periods—the first during Christmas vacation, another in April during a week of spring vacation and the third in late June and early July, when all most two weeks are available as the district adjusts its schedule to fit into the calendar of the coming year.

Is STATE AID AFFECTED? Is the total claim for funds the 45-15 Plan.

Waste Paper Drives To Be Resumed

OCTOBER 19, 1945

Al Ward, chairman of the Waste Paper Salvage Committee, and committee members have set Nov. 9 as the date of the next waste paper collection. As in previous drives, there will be a city-wide curb pick-up by high school students. Ward says that although the war is over, the need for scrap paper is just as acute as ever.

The largest business expansion and improvement program undertaken so far in the postwar period by a Granite City firm is under way at the J. C. Ruff Bottling Co., 2118 Grand avenue. Carl Ruff, who has just been discharged from the Army after four years of service, said the project includes an addition to the present buildings as well as entirely new and larger equipment.

Halloween decorations and favors were used for the October meeting of the Phi Kappa chapter of Niedringhaus Memorial Church. Mrs. J. E. Tolleson led prayer and the devotional service was given by Mrs. Ralph S. Miller. The lesson was by Mrs. F. E. Camp. Hostesses were Mrs. Tolman Wadsworth, Mrs. Paul Pender and Mrs. Susie Kniffin.

Gaby Gantcheff, Marine pharmacist mate and proprietor of Gantcheff's drug store, is now stationed at Sasebo, Japan. He reports that "the hours are long but the work isn't too strenuous."

BPW Club Plans Events To Mark Women's Week

Mrs. Dolores Allen will serve as general chairman for the observance by the local Business and Professional Women's Club of National Business and Professional Women's Week, which begins Monday with the members attending the churches of their choice.

National BPW Week was first celebrated in April, 1928, with the announced purpose of dramatizing the contribution of women to the business and professional life of the country.

From these early efforts NBW has grown to be a nationwide organization of business and professional women's contribution as citizens today, and of the leadership they are providing in the economic, social, cultural, business and professional life of the United States.

Now held during the third week of October each year, it is an outstanding public relations event, a stimulus to program interpretations, and an aid to membership growth.

Today the group was to attend the County meeting at the City Hall. They will meet on the Edison side of the city hall at 7:30 in a group of "progressive cuisine" from 6:15 p.m. to 7:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Helene Bischoff, 1624 Moro avenue.

The main course will be served from 8 until 8:45 at the home of Mrs. Elvira Tharber, 2701 Grand avenue. A delicious place will be at the home of Mrs. Allen for dessert and coffee.

Friday evening a party will be given at the Anchorage at 7:30 and the club members are urged to attend to mark the BPW night for the senior citizens.

Cougars Win, Face Tough Schedule

Coach Bob Guelker was pleased as his SIU-SW soccer squad rebounded Saturday with a convincing 4-1 win over strong University of Missouri-St. Louis on the local campus.

Going into the game, the Cougar kickers were down in spirit following their 10-1 loss at the hands of Quincy College last week, even though the loss had been hampered by the illness of two key players, goalie Jim Stranz and left halfback Joe Galvin, and crippling injuries to John Deimowski, Fred Faccetti, Tom Howe and freshman sensation Chris Carenza.

Guelker remains apprehensive about the schedule immediately ahead. The Cougars will have to play three tough and important games if they want to receive a bid to a post-season NCAA tournament.

Starting tomorrow, SIU-SW travels to Charleston, Ill., to take on Eastern Illinois University in a 4 p.m. contest. Eastern is defending National Collegiate Athletic Association champion. Two weeks ago, Quincy beat Eastern 1-0.

This Saturday and Sunday, the Cougars are faced with two big tests: Saturday's foe will be the University of British Columbia on Sunday, they'll travel to St. Louis University's Muehle Field to take on nationally-ranked University of South Florida, Tampa.

If Guelker's charges can win all three, the 1970 record would be a respectable 7-1 and would keep alive the Cougar's hopes for another chance at an NCAA title.

Saturday's game between SIU and UMSL looked like a replay of the two clubs' 1969 contest when the Cougars ripped the Rivermen in the final minutes, 2-1. This time, it was a scoreless first two quarters with only a slight advantage for the Cougars, 10 shots to six on goal.

After the intermission Chris Carenza blasted in the first goal unassisted at 5:18 into the third quarter.

Deimowski put the Cougars ahead 2-0 as he scored close-in on a feed from Jim Stranz at 10:21. At 21:07 in the third period, Chris Carenza took a pass from Tom Howe and drilled in his second goal.

With nearly all subs in for SIU-SW in the fourth quarter and the ailing Cougar defense in Jim Stranz, making his first appearance this year, the Rivermen scored at 25:03. The Cougars bounced the ball over a defender's head and took the ball on in for the goal.

John Carenza, held scoreless for nearly eight quarters, a record for him, later took a pass from Mickey Conway and scored.

The Cougars had 28 shots to UMSL's eight. Chick Benben, sophomore stand-out, was superb in goal for SIU-SW and UMSL's frosh goaltender was sensational, he racked up 13 "saves."

With 245 runners, Briggs came in 23rd in 10:37; Doug Horton, 32nd, 10:32; Howie Bryant, 36th, 10:34; George Lux, 80th, 11: Art Menander 118th, 11:32; Scott Schneider, 145th, 11:33; and Tom Bull, 159th, 11:38.

Children Need Good Study Area

Parents can help children develop good study habits by providing a good place for them to do their homework. Some of the important steps in creating a good study area are:

Choose a spot free from distractions. Sight, sound and household traffic tend to discourage concentration. Provide adequate ventilation and a comfortable temperature.

Equip the study area with an adequate desk. Be sure the desk is a convenient height for working. Two different arrangements may be necessary for the student who does some typing in addition to writing.

Select a desk chair that is comfortable. It should be resilient, yet firm.

Provide adequate light both in the study room and at the desk area.

Provide convenient storage facilities for study materials and books.

Wives Should Encourage Corn-Picker Safety

When your farmer husband prevents accidents during corn-picking season by encouraging him to be a safe operator. Corn-picker operators should follow these practices:

Stop the picker before oiling, adjusting or unclogging. Make "shutting off the power" a habit every time you leave the tractor seat.

Keep shields in place. Never operate without them.

Dress for the job. Always wear close-fitting clothes that are warm and comfortable.

"Extra-thumb gloves are especially dangerous."

Prohibit extra riders and see that you keep a firm footing when climbing on and off equipment.

When driving pickers on the highway, use a red flag to warn motorists of a slow-moving vehicle. For night driving, use lights—white in front and red on the rear. Obey all traffic rules.

Marinate Meat for the Grill

If you select the less tender cuts of beef for your fall barbecue—blade or arm chuck, round or flank steak—tenderize them first. Marinate them in a mixture of oil and seasonings, along with either lemon juice, vinegar or tomato juice. Refrigerate the meat while its marinating, but allow it to lose its chill before grilling.

How To Dance Your Way Through Fall Cleaning

Want to dance your way through fall housecleaning? By adopting the technique of ballet dancing to housecleaning you may find yourself rewarded with a firmer figure, even though dirt chasing won't be quite as exciting as being on stage.

Start by loading up the record player with your favorite selections and see to it that all parts of your body—arms, legs, head, back, abdomen—move rhythmically to the music as you go about your cleaning chores.

Fall cleaning doesn't have to be a headache, experts on heads of dance and exercise, organize your cleaning equipment and follow a logical plan to accomplish your tasks. From top to bottom, the proper way to clean, and the vacuum with its handy attachments, will do half your work while you get a workout.

Use the long tube and brush to do the walls as you get up on your toes and stretch up, up, up. A back and forth motion takes care of window sills and window frames while you sway from the waist, move your head from side to side as your wrist pushes the dust brush over the furniture in a circular motion. Next comes mediating of the furniture, and here it is that a great many muscles come into play. Cleaning the legs and bottom edges of furniture calls for the knee-bend routine.

When you lower your body, don't bend from the spine. Keep your back straight, then squat. Pull up on the ankles, toes, legs and abdomen on the way up, relax the pull on the way down, and keep the polishing cloth active.

For washing venetian blinds, it's also the top-to-bottom method. After the vacuum pulls the dust off, wash using a folded cloth or a flat sponge cut half-way through so both sides of the stat can be washed at the same time. Getting up and down on a firm, sturdy step stool to change the water in your pail will take care of exercising the leg muscles. Down on your knees if you wash the venetian blinds in the bathtub where they can be spread out and rinsed several times in clean, running water. Shift your position from time to time and kneel on a rubber mat to relieve the pressure on your knees.

Bathrooms and kitchens offer splendid opportunities to bend and stretch. If washing tiles, always keep your schedule, avoid streaks by washing from the bottom up and wiping up as you go along. Vocalize as you tackle floors, fixtures, tiles and painted surfaces, especially in the bathroom. In that confined space, your sound like a virtuoso. When it comes to the medicine chest, discard medicines no longer in use and those with blurred or stained labels. Pour liquid medicines down the drain and flush away tablets and capsules. Always keep medicines out of the reach of children.

This household choreography may cause some aching muscles, but two aspirin and a warm bath will help relieve that. Then, your hard, wonderfully alive feeling from improved body and muscle tone, resulting from a bravo performance in fall cleaning.

Garden Pines

Yellow needles on the inside portion of pines in October are a normal development.

Pine trees drop a portion of their needles every year as a normal part of their growing cycle. Needle drop is rather dramatic when they suddenly turn yellow. Vigorous trees appear hard hit because fast growth creates many new needles each year and drop a large number of old ones each fall.

Pine needles normally function for two summers and drop during the third season. You can count the seasons growth on your tree to determine which seasons needles are dropping. If last years needles are dropping or some of this summers needles a fungus or insect problem has developed.

Replacing the Elm

Elm disease and phloem necrosis have combined to destroy the elm as a reliable shade tree. Nine local trees which grow to 90 feet or more are offered by nurseries as replacements. These include Hackberry, White Ash, River Birch, Kentucky Coffee tree, Ginkgo, Hickory, Red Maple, Sugar Maple and Sweet Gum.

In these next four weeks this column will present details of the 9 trees. This week is the Hackberry and River Birch.

Two varieties of hackberry grow in this area as bottom-land and hillside trees. The common hackberry and sugar-berry (celtis laevigata). Sugar-berry is recommended because it is resistant to witches broom.

Sugar berry grows to be a round topped spreading tree of 90 feet. The trunk and large limbs develop corky warts. Sugar berry will grow in any type of soil and is a long lived tree. Leaves are very similar to elm.

The main feature of this tree is long life, large size, gray bark with corky warts and broad spreading limbs.

River Birch (Betula Nigra) is the only native birch in Southern Illinois and Missouri. This birch grows to 90 feet with a pyramidal shape. When grown as a clump it rarely grows beyond 80 feet. The paper bark on young trees is tan or light pink and reveals dark red-brown inner bark. Leaves are similar to other birch. River Birch is common in low lands and river banks with red maple and silver maple. Fall color is yellow. The main feature of this tree is long life, peeling bark, fast growth and large size. It survives occasional flooding.

Tree Leaves as Lawn Mulches

Your rotary lawn mower can help you take the easy way out of raking leaves.

Falling leaves are easily ground to fine particles and left to become part of the organic matter on top of the soil. When lawns are regularly fertilized, the fertilizer helps soil organisms and earth worms to quickly reduce the pulverized leaves to humus.

Regular cutting (grinding) is very important. Do not let the leaves completely cover the grass and become several leaves thick. The shading harms the grass while you wait for the last leaf to fall. Wet leaves do not grind well and often are missed by the mower. Many of these wet leaves will kill the grass beneath them.

the dishwasher skeptic

"You don't mean to tell me a dishwasher will get this clean. Do you?"

You've heard a lot, read a lot about dishwashers.

You're still skeptical. How can a dishwasher save 300 hours a year or more? Don't you still have the chore of scraping and rinsing?

And isn't washing by hand really better? (Never mind what the dishwasher does to your hands.)

Here's an invitation. Pack up all your doubts and come to a Dishwasher Demonstration Party.

Your hostess: the Illinois Power Home Economist.

The place: her kitchen or that of one of your neighbors. No selling, no obligation. Just a neighborly get-together that can show you why a big part of your life may be going down the drain.

Return the coupon below right now and be prepared for a surprise.

Driver Refresher Courses For Adults Planned

Driver Training refresher courses for adults are being planned by Superintendent of Public Instruction, Ray Page. Page announced the Department of Safety Education in his office will begin several pilot projects throughout the State and will offer free driver training courses to adults having a valid driver's license.

Page said the program was given impetus when Clarence Lipman, executive director of the Governor's Committee for Senior Citizens, reported Senior Citizens concern that they were not equipped in training to cope with today's complex highway problems.

"Most Senior Citizens earned their driver's licenses when there was no such thing as a High School driver education program," Page commented.

Page explained that there is a need for a program to educate the adult population—and especially Senior Citizens—on good driving habits and attitudes.

"Most adults were taught to drive by an older member of the family or a friend teaching them the mechanics of operating an automobile," Page explained. "If their teacher had bad habits, they picked up those bad habits."

Page said the new program will be beneficial to Senior Citizens and others in the adult population in addition to society in general.

"With the new State law requiring a driver to be tested every nine years, this will help people prepare for these tests," said Page.

Superintendent Page pointed out, "Adult driver education centers have been selected throughout the state to participate in the pilot program. It is the plan of the Department of Safety Education that eventually this course will be available in all counties of the State. The participating schools will be announced at a later date."

Lipman, commenting on the development of this course by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, said, "Senior Citizens, more than any other group in our society, must depend on their automobiles. They depend upon them to do their shopping, go to their doctors and keep in touch with their friends. Today's complex rules and overcrowded highways scare them. This program will make them safer drivers and more confident drivers."

Gerald Grider, 2675 Washington avenue, reported at 7:50 a.m. Friday that someone entered his locked garage and used a piece of garden hose in an attempt to siphon some gasoline from his auto, but the tank was low. There was no sign of forced entry.

T-Men's Job Dangerous, Varied, Explorers Told

One of the highest death rates among law enforcement agencies in the U.S. Treasury Department's Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms division," according to Area Supervisor Daniel J. Pfeiffer, who spoke to Explorer Post 10-4 and Madison Auxiliary Police at an Explorer's meeting last week.

The reason for the high death rate is due to bootlegging operations in the southeastern part of the United States, Pfeiffer said. "Nationally, about 65% of the agents' time is spent with investigating and enforcing federal alcohol laws," he added.

Pfeiffer continued, "In the St. Louis area, however, only 5 to 10% of our time involves this problem. Much of our time is spent in firearms investigations and enforcement. We are also called upon to lend agents to special projects like the Sky Marshall detail, which has been put into effect to curb airplane hijackers."

"At present, some of my agents have been called to the United Nations which now is in its session. We also assist the Secret Service when necessary in the protection of the President," Pfeiffer continued.

Joe Mathewson, executive director of the Illinois Citizens for Clean Water, will explain the $750 million anti-pollution bond issue at the first fall meeting of the Southwestern Illinois Council of Mayors at the Lewis and Clark Restaurant in East Alton, Wednesday, Oct. 28.

Mayor members of the council have been urged to bring to the meeting their city engineers and other officials particularly interested in the problem of water pollution and sewage treatment as a means of solving pollution problems.

The Bond Pollution act encompasses a plan to aid cities in cleaning up their water with sewage treatment facilities built with grants made from the $750 million bond issue.

Dinner will be served at 7 p.m. Mayor Frank Keasler of East Alton will host the meeting.

Madison School District Responsible for Subway

The month-old question as to who is legally responsible for the maintenance of the McCambridge avenue subway to the Louis Baer school in Madison was settled Thursday night when Madison school superintendent Raymond Dragich reported to the school board that the responsibility is that of the district.

Dragich said that under a 1959 resolution, the school board agreed to be responsible for the maintenance, cleanliness and lighting of the state-built subway, even though it is under a state highway.

At last month's meeting, the board ordered Dragich to determine who was legally responsible for the tunnel after receiving protests that the subway had no lights and that there was water standing in it. Students were required to wade through water to get to the school, parents claimed.

One mother charged that not only was the tunnel not being maintained, but that it also was ungarded and several children had been molested by other children while going to and from school.

The board also ordered Dragich to appoint a guard at the tunnel in the mornings and afternoons and to take "whatever measures are necessary to protect our children." Lights were installed in the subway and the sump pump was checked to guarantee that water would not collect there.

Board members agreed at Thursday's meeting to continue the maintenance program and to keep the guard, a teacher's assistant from the school, on duty one hour before and after school to see that the children are protected.

A contract for fencing in the back of Blair School in Madison was also awarded to Granite City Fence Co. by the board. The offer of $693 was the only bid submitted.

The board was informed that Granite City Dodge Inc. will supply a driver's education car free of charge again this year for Madison high school.

The board approved a resolution to send a delegate to the Illinois Association of School Boards' meeting Nov. 21-23 at the Sherman Hotel in Chicago. Sherrell Byrd was named delegate to the convention with Oel Blumentstock as alternate.

The hiring of Mrs. Nancy Meyer as an English teacher in the high school was approved and the board was informed that Mrs. Yvonne A. Ward, speech teacher, would be returning to work after a leave of absence.

*FACTS FOR HUSBANDS *FACTS FOR WIVES

As with most men, your idea of comfort leans to the firm side. What you need is firm support...because the last thing you need in the morning is a backache from sleeping on a too-soft mattress. Posturepedic stops this kind of morning backache. It's designed in cooperation with leading orthopedic surgeons for comfortably firm support. One of the things that makes this support is a 50% firmer foundation that works on the torsion bar principle—very durable, very good value!

Let's face it: what wife wouldn't like to be pampered? Cuddled...cradled in comfort! You work hard all day so be good to yourself all night on a Posturepedic. The world's most lavish sleeping surface has layer on fluffy layer of cushioning that gently relaxes your body to sleep. And imagine—all night long, while you're asleep, Posturepedic works the magic of firm support from head to toe. You'll wake up feeling better, happier, more rested. And he'll love you for it!
